

Journal #2

What means of communication (spoken or written) do you use most often, outside of school, to express yourself? Does it depend on the message or the person you are addressing? Your choice can be technological, oral or any mode of physical written communication. Explain your preferred method and why.