

pg 20b

Eyes - "The savage stood for a moment in frozen silence, then fell on his knees beside the bed and, covering his face with his hands, sobbed uncontrollably."
(crying)

pg 139

Wings - "O brave new world," he repeated. "O brave new world that has such people in it, lets start at once" (trunk + suitcase)

pg 10b

Mouth - "O brave new world." By some malice of his memory the savage found himself repeating Miranda's words. "O brave new world that has such people in it."
(speaking Shakespeare)

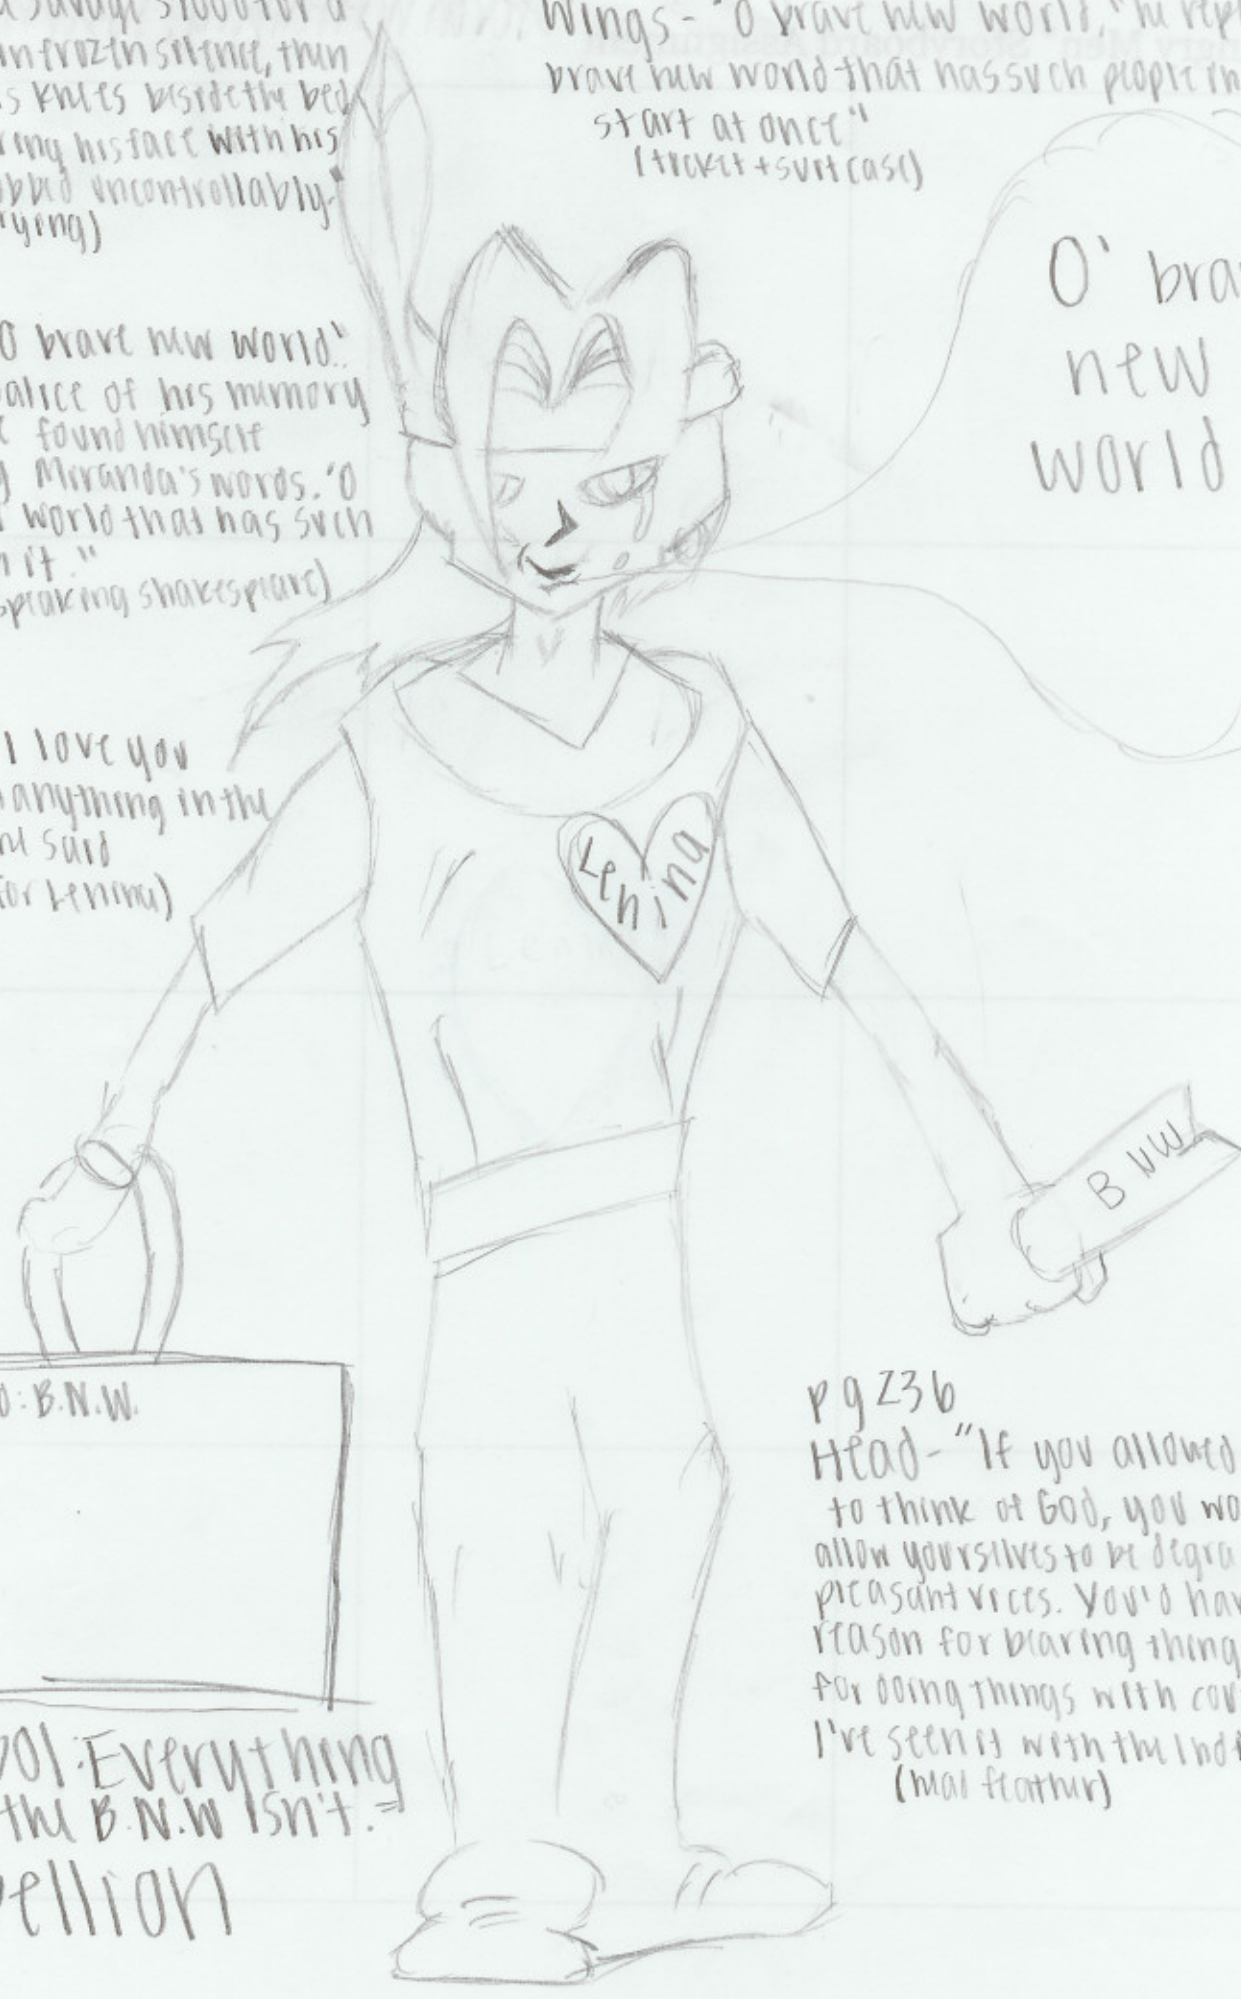

pg 192

Heart - "I love you more than anything in the world," he said
(heart for Lenina)

O' brave new world

Symbol: Everything that the B.N.W. isn't.
Rebellion

pg 236

Head - "If you allowed yourselves to think of God, you wouldn't allow yourselves to be degraded by pleasant vices. You'd have a reason for bearing things patiently for doing things with courage. I've seen it with the Indians." - John (Mal Feather)