Nerd Love

Nerd love is the best kind of love there is,
Because when we say 'I love you,'
In words only a chemist could understand,
Like,
'Baby I'm like a deliquescent substance,
I pull the love out of the air that is you,
Like water,
And it combines with me to create the solution that is us.'
Or use the most obscure video game references like,
'If I'm Cid then you're the Highwind,
Cuz I would be grounded without you.'
Or,
'You're the Peach to my Mario,
and no matter how many castles I have to beat,
I will save you from that Bowser.'
But baby your princess will never be in another castle,
I'm right here,
And like Penelope waited for Odysseus,
Here is where I'm gonna stay,
I love you more then Link loves Cuckoos,
I won't pull a strategy guide,
And give you nothing just when you need me,
You are the catalyst to my reactant,
And this reaction is gonna be explosive.
